

Jump-Start Your Business in High-Efficiency Water Heating

The Water Heater Installers (WHI) Preparation class is being conducted by McKenzie James, Senior Plumbing Inspector, City of Portland, Master Plumber, International Code Council (ICC) Vice-Chair of Plumbing, Mechanical, Fuel Gas Code Governing Council, ICC Codes and Standards Council and ICC Education Committee Member.

Mr. James will be presenting a preparatory class to allow participants, who wish, to be better prepared take and pass the State WHI license examination. The presentation will include a complete review of the knowledge areas required to take and pass the WHI test and will include some sample test questions to acquaint the applicant on the format of the exam.

Class Time: Saturday June 2, 2012 8:30am-4:30

This class earns participants 8 hours of Code Related Credit

Journeyman Plumbers Welcome!!!

It is suggested that the attendee should have a 2011 Oregon Plumbing Specialty Code (OPSC) book:

http://www.iapmostore.org/iapmo/shopadvanced\_search\_result.php?keywords=2008+Oregon+plumbing+&x=9&y=13

Wi-Fi is available to view OPSC book online

NW College of Construction
8111 Northeast Holman Street
Portland, OR. 97218-4021

Class size is limited! Register Today!

Definition of WH1 licensee: A person licensed as a limited specialty plumber by the State Plumbing Board can replace existing water heaters in one and two-family dwellings.

After this preparatory class, applicants who are interested in the State test should apply at:

<http://www.bcd.oregon.gov/programs/plumbing.html>